An Oak & a Deal

When Washington Anderson and his four colleagues were looking for a location for the seat of Williamson County, they paused to rest in the shade of a large oak tree. After a time, they were joined by Anderson's cousin, George Washington Glasscock, who owned the land on which they sat. Anderson asked him if he would donate the surrounding area for the county seat. He agreed, and Georgetown was founded, named in his honor.

Since then, Georgetown has grown into a city of more than 65,000 residents. Nestled in the Texas Hill Country, its natural beauty, modern amenities, and proximity to Austin have made it a prime place to live and work!

City Parks

Founder's Park

811 Main St

Founder's Park is where Williamson County's first six commissioners met under a stately oak tree in May 1848 to choose a location for the county seat. George Washington Glasscock offered to donate the land he owned jointly with Thomas B. Huling. The land was bounded by the oak tree at one corner and the San Gabriel River to the north and west.

Berry Springs Park

1801 CR 152

Berry Springs Park and Preserve is utilized for passive recreational uses including camping, hiking and fishing. It was voted "The Best Kept Secret" in the "The Best of Georgetown" contest. The park was also recognized for its outstanding trails and picnic facilities.

Blue Hole Park

100 Blue Hole Park

Blue Hole Park is a scenic lagoon bordered by limestone bluffs along the South Fork of the San Gabriel River. It is located five blocks north of the downtown square along N. Austin Avenue.

Garey Park

6450 FM 2243

At 525 acres, Garey Park is the City's largest at roughly 1.5 times the size of Zilker Park in Austin. Amenities at the park include a playground, a splash pad, a dog park, an equestrian arena, the Garey House event space, pavilions, and more than 6 miles of hiking and equestrian trails. Other facilities include an entry gate, restrooms and a maintenance facility.

San Gabriel Park

445 E. Morrow St

San Gabriel Park is graced with 200-year-old oak trees that offer shady spots for family picnics. The 180-acre park also provides space for concerts and festivals, as well as fields for soccer, football, lacrosse and baseball. A hike and bike trail goes through the park, including a 1.6 mile loop in the park and other segments that connect to Blue Hole Park, Rivery Park, and all the way to Lake Georgetown. There is also a 9-hole disc golf course at the north end of the park.

Golf Courses

Berry Creek Country Club

30500 Berry Creek Drive

The Berry Creek Country Club golf course was completed in 1987 and was designed by noted architect and Georgetown resident, Carl Doering.

Cimarron Hills Country Club

200 E. Cimarron Hills Trail

The 7,302-yard, award-winning Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course rewards thoughtful and strategic play, rather than simple brute force.

Cowan Creek Golf Club

1433 Cool Springs Way

At the Cowan Creek Golf Course, you will experience a true "resort-course" feeling, as each hole has its own character. Designed by Gary Stevenson Design.

Georgetown Country Club

1500 Country Club Road

Situated on the Middle San Gabriel River, the Georgetown Country Club course is based on a 1920s 9-hole course, recently expanded to 18 holes.
