

SAN ANTONIO

Fall Bucket List

- Avoid the curse at SeaWorld's Howl-o-Scream.
- Visit the apple orchard and pick persimmons at Love Creek Orchards.
- Go corn fishing, ride the barrel train, see a live roping show, and more at Devine Acres Farm.
- Root your team to victory at a local high school football game.
- Trick-or-treat at the San Antonio Zoo's 29th annual Zoo Boo.
- Make popcorn balls.
- Build your scarecrow.
- Brave your way through the corn maze at the South Texas MAiZE.
- Soak up the gorgeous fall weather on a family hike. (And check out Maggie's suggestions for some fabulous local hiking hotspots!)
- Go to the Tasting Texas, Wine + Food Festival at historic Travis Park.
- Honor our city's Mexican heritage by celebrating Dia De Los Muertos in La Villita.
- Watch It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown (and The Nightmare Before Christmas if your kids are old enough to handle it!).
- Participate in the children's costume parade at the BOOtanica! Fall Festival at San Antonio Botanical Gardens.
- Take a day trip to experience Gruene Market Days.
- Enjoy free trick-or-treating designed for those with special needs at AccessAbility Fest in El Mercado.
- Brave Fright Fest at Six Flags.
- Kayak or paddle the Mission Reach section of the San Antonio River.
- Make your own Halloween decorations—painted monster mason jars, ghost garland, a cute-and-easy Halloween sign, etc.
- Bust out your Lederhosen for a fun family day at Wurstfest in New Braunfels.
- Experience Luminaria, an annual festival that showcases San Antonio artists and local culture uniquely and incredibly.
- Drink spiced apple cider (tip: add a smidge of cinnamon whiskey for the most delicious fall cocktail you could imagine!).
- Create a "gratitude journal."
- Watch A Charlie Brown Thanksgiving, and recreate Snoopy's version of Thanksgiving dinner (e.g., buttered toast, jellybeans, pretzel sticks, and popcorn) for a fun fall snack.
- Fashion an autumn-themed wreath.
- Make a list of things you are thankful for this Thanksgiving.
- Go glamping in Wimberley at Collective Hill Country.
- Run the San Antonio Food Bank Turkey Trot.
- Take a ride on the Brackenridge Eagle for up-close views of fantastic fall foliage.
- Shop for crafty Christmas gifts at the UUMC MOPS Artisan Market.
- Make birdseed ornaments and hang them in your yard.
- Reserve your tickets to The Nutcracker at the Tobin Center for Performing Arts.
- Bask in the glory of 80,000 LED holiday lights at the Ford Holiday River Parade and Lighting Ceremony.
