

Ways to Give Back This Holiday Season

Greater San Antonio Area

CASA

Child Advocates San Antonio offers online volunteer advocate training, allowing you to partner with a child or family in the foster care system, advocating for their best interests and needs with a one-year commitment. casa-satx.org

Elf Louise Christmas Project

Join Elf Louise volunteers in spreading Christmas joy to disadvantaged children in Bexar County through this 100% volunteer-driven project with a dedicated team of over 4,500 individuals who wrap gifts and deliver toys during the holiday season. elflouise.org

Family Service

Participate in the nonprofit's Adopt-A-Family event, where you can either directly adopt a family with a provided wish list or contribute by shopping through their Amazon WishList to support families in need with gifts and essential items. family-service.org

FVPS Battered Women's and Children's Shelter

Volunteer opportunities for adults include administrative work, while donations, such as a $25 "Gift of Play," provide books and toys for children, a $50 "Gift of Hope" offers blankets, linens, and towels, and a $100 "Gift of New Beginnings" provides new clothes and shoes for families seeking a fresh start after experiencing abuse at this nonprofit. fvps.org

Haven for Hope

Your contributions go directly to helping their clients, often allowing them to choose the items they need themselves. You can conveniently drop off donations at our Donation Center. havenforhope.org

The Salvation Army

Join the #RescueChristmas initiative, offering online and in-person options to support struggling families, including the Red Kettle Challenge, the "Parade of Kettles," the Angel Tree program for shopping for kids in need, and additional volunteer opportunities. salvationarmysanantonio.org

San Antonio Food Bank

With food demand doubling since the pandemic, this nonprofit urgently requires volunteers for December to assist at distribution events, the Urban Farm, the warehouse, or the community kitchen, and you can sign up for available shifts on their website. safoodbank.org

United Way San Antonio and Bexar County

Volunteers are making a difference and transforming our community. The Volunteer Center at United Way offers a variety of opportunities to enhance the lives of those in need through volunteer service. uwsatx.org
