Nestled among the scenic "Five Hills", Copperas Cove offers families an affordable gateway to Hill Country living. This welcoming community traces its roots to 1879, evolving from a small ranching outpost into a thriving city shaped by its partnership with neighboring Fort Hood. Today, Copperas Cove blends small-town charm with modern amenities—from an 18-hole golf course and expansive parks to vibrant annual festivals like Rabbit Fest and the German-inspired Krist Kindl Markt. With strong schools, low crime rates, and a diverse population enriched by military families from across the nation, it's a place where heritage meets opportunity for those seeking genuine Texas hospitality.

City Park

106 W Avenue B
This is an 88-acre park with picnic areas, grills, two children-shaded playscapes, soccer fields, baseball and softball fields, and two outdoor basketball and volleyball courts. City Park features the main public swimming pool in Cove which features a circular slide and a zero entry in the children's play area with a mushroom fountain. And don't forget your fishing pole and try your luck at the "duck pond".

South Park

2602 Dennis Drive
South Park has a paved hike/bike trail beside a local creek. The trail measures 0.7 miles one way and is used for many exercise and fitness activities. One of two swimming pools is located at this park and features a new Splash Pad for our younger patrons. It also has a children's playscape and two youth soccer fields.

Ogletree Gap Park

1878 Post Office Rd
Ogletree Gap has the original stage stop at this historical town site and the historical First Post Office of Copperas Cove. This is a beautiful area for exploring and walking in a natural setting. Ogletree Gap features a covered pavilion that can be reserved and rented for special events.

Kate St Park

603 Kate Street
Kate St Park is 23 acres located in the residential area near Morris Valley. Kate St has two playscapes, swings, BBQ grill, pet receptacles, and a bike repair stand.
