Disk Golf Course

The 22-hole course was designed by the Ennis Disc Golf Association and curated by the Ennis Parks & Recreation staff. Positioned in a wooded area with very few open fairways, the course remains one of the most challenging and highest rated in the area.
 3000 W. Ennis Avenue, Ennis

I.O.O.F Park

A 5.25 park with 2 baseball fields, newly installed playground, and 1/2 mile walking trail. The jewel of the park is its regulation baseball field played on by a local amateur team, complete with dugouts and stands.
 4100 4th Street, Ennis

Kachina Prairie Park

A 35 acre nature trail located on the north east side of Lake Clark Park. It is a rare, undisturbed part of the Blackland Prairie eco-region and a southern extension of the North American tall grass prairie.
 1816 W. Baldrige Street, Ennis

Kiwanis Park at Old City Lake

Kiwanis Park is a 4.3 acre neighborhood park located along the southern edge of Old City Lake. A small but relaxing area, the park has a new playground and serves as a trail connector to the Ivan Goodwin Walking Trail. You can fish or launch your kayak from the jetty nearby as well.
 610 Park Street, Ennis

Lake Clark Park

A shoreline park surrounded by Ennis' popular Lake Clark, a beautiful 156 acre public body of water. The park contains a playground and picnic gazebos for families to enjoy their day. Love to fish? You will find a land jetty and a pier to cast off of, or use our boat launch to motor out further on the lake. Anglers will find a variety of fish including catfish, large mouth bass, bream/bluegill, red ear sunfish, white bass, carp, and crappie. Please ensure you have the proper fishing license, boating certifications, and safety gear on board.
 2100 W. Baldrige Street, Ennis

Lions Park

At 18.5 acres, Lions Park trail amenities make it a daily tradition for leisure walkers, joggers, and those who just want to relax around the large pond. The main attraction is the 1/2 mile paved walking path featuring the Ennis Library's Story Walk, 20 reading stations containing the children's book of the month. Benches and overlooks along the path allow patrons to take in the beauty of this serene property. Large trees are abundant throughout the area and include turn-of-the-century lighting for a nostalgic atmosphere. Lions Park houses a covered pavilion, covered playground, restroom facilities, a "Little Library" used book exchange, and all the relaxation one can take! Fishing is allowed along the banks of the pond.
 2300 Park Street, Ennis

Minnie McDowal

The gateway to our historical downtown district. The beautiful gazebo serves as the place to meet up when shopping or out for a bite with family and friends. Throughout the year, the gazebo is used for art displays, community functions, and live music events.
 119 Dallas Street, Ennis

Rotary Park

At 35.5 acres, it is the largest community park in Ennis. The park features a refreshing splash pad for hot Texas summers, two beautiful event pavilions, a new playground suitable for all ages, three beach volleyball courts, and an outdoor National Fitness Court.
