

TEXAS WATER PARKS

CENTRAL TEXAS

Volente Beach

Leander | volentebeach.com

On the shores of Lake Travis, Volente Beach features four slide attractions and pools that use natural lake water, plus a private beach area for guests. Its lakefront setting and intimate scale make it a popular choice for Austin-area families seeking a more relaxed water park experience.

Hawaiian Falls

Pflugerville, Waco | hfalls.com

Hawaiian Falls' three Texas waterpark locations have earned a reputation for being among the nation's best. The parks offer flexible visiting options through season passes and various ticket packages, positioning themselves as a premier family-friendly summer destination for memorable aquatic adventures.

Typhoon Texas

Pflugerville | typhoontexas.com/austin

Typhoon Texas Pflugerville spans 23 acres with attractions designed for all ages, from a giant wave pool to a 1,000-foot lazy river. The park features multiple slide towers offering speed slides, tube slides, and six-lane racing options. The Gully Washer children's area creates a dream playground with seven slides and a massive 800-gallon dump bucket.

Kalahari Resorts & Conventions

Round Rock | kalahariresorts.com/texas

Kalahari Resorts & Conventions Round Rock houses America's largest indoor waterpark within an African-themed resort complex. The facility combines waterpark thrills with luxury amenities, including a spa, restaurants, and entertainment centers. Everything operates under one roof, making it a complete destination for all ages.

DFW AREA

Six Flags Hurricane Harbor

Arlington | sixflags.com/hurricaneharbortexas

Six Flags Hurricane Harbor Arlington claims the title of North Texas's largest waterpark, spreading 24 rides across 50 acres. The massive scale includes extreme attractions like a 72-foot freefall slide and giant funnel raft rides alongside family-friendly options. Visitors often need multiple days to experience everything the park offers.

Rosemeade Rainforest Aquatic Complex

Carrollton | cityofcarrollton.com

This aquatic facility offers something for everyone with distinct areas for all ages and excitement levels. The complex includes both active play elements like water cannons and dump buckets, plus traditional swimming options including lap lanes and diving areas, all supported by modern amenities and plenty of space to relax.

Hawaiian Waters (Formerly Hawaiian Falls)

The Colony, Garland | hawaiianwaters.com

Hawaiian Waters delivers tropical thrills without the travel, offering everything from high-speed slides to gentle, kid-friendly attractions in the heart of the DFW area. The park features tube rides, speed slides, and a wave pool that create an oasis of aquatic fun. Families can enjoy a complete water park experience with attractions designed for all ages and thrill levels.

Splash Kingdom Waterpark

Canton, Greenville, Hudson Oaks
splashkingdomwaterpark.com

Splash Kingdom operates a chain of Christian family waterparks across Texas, emphasizing safe and wholesome recreation in a faith-based environment. Their locations feature standard waterpark attractions, including wave pools, lazy rivers, various water slides, and dedicated children's play areas. The company focuses on providing family-friendly entertainment with food service and party facilities available at each park.

Bahama Beach Waterpark

Dallas | bahamabeachdallas.com

Bahama Beach Waterpark's compact 8-acre size makes it ideal for families with young children who might feel overwhelmed at larger parks. The park balances gentle attractions like a lazy river and splash pad with thrilling rides like the Riptide Slide. Its manageable scale allows families to enjoy everything without feeling rushed.

Jadewaters at the Anatole

Dallas | hilton.com

JadeWaters offers guests a comprehensive aquatic experience across three acres, featuring family-friendly attractions like water slides and a lazy river alongside a beach entry pool. The resort also provides Leisure Cove, a more tranquil space with a swim-up bar and hot tub that serves as an alternative when the main pool areas are unavailable. All facilities are set within an expansive sculpture park that enhances the overall resort atmosphere.

Water Works

Denton | dentonwaterworks.com

Water Works Park serves as Denton's municipal water park, offering visitors an array of aquatic attractions, including towering slides and a relaxing lazy river. The facility caters to all ages with a dedicated children's play area, while also providing amenities like private cabanas and special event packages.

Burger's Lake

Fort Worth | burgerslake.com

This Fort Worth water park combines the convenience of a central city location with the natural appeal of spring-fed swimming areas and sandy beaches. Visitors can enjoy a wide range of activities, including diving boards, water slides, volleyball courts, and a trapeze, while families appreciate the dedicated children's splash pad and shaded picnic areas with grills.

Epic Waters Indoor Waterpark

Grand Prairie | epicwatersgp.com

Epic Waters Indoor Waterpark provides year-round fun under its massive retractable roof, featuring eleven waterslides including three world-first designs. The 80,000-square-foot facility combines thrilling water attractions with amenities like cabanas, an arcade, and dining options. Families can enjoy water fun regardless of weather conditions.

Dove Waterpark

Grapevine | grapevinetexas.gov

Dove Waterpark features multiple water attractions, including slides, a diving board, and shallow areas perfect for young swimmers, all supervised by trained lifeguards. The facility offers something for every age group, from cautious toddlers to energetic teens, with convenient concessions available on-site. Families can enjoy a safe, well-maintained aquatic environment where everyone can cool off and relax together.

Gaylord Texan Paradise Springs

Grapevine | gaylordtexan.com

Gaylord Texan Resort is a comprehensive family destination that combines relaxation and entertainment. The resort features an array of amenities, including spa services, live shows, multiple pools, and a seasonal water park complete with a lengthy lazy river.

Great Wolf Lodge

Grapevine | greatwolf.com/grapevine

Great Wolf Lodge Grapevine combines an 80,000-square-foot indoor waterpark with hotel accommodations and dry-land adventures all under one roof. The facility maintains a comfortable 84-degree temperature year-round, making it perfect for any season. Guests enjoy waterpark access along with their stay, plus dining and entertainment options.

Paradise Springs Water Park

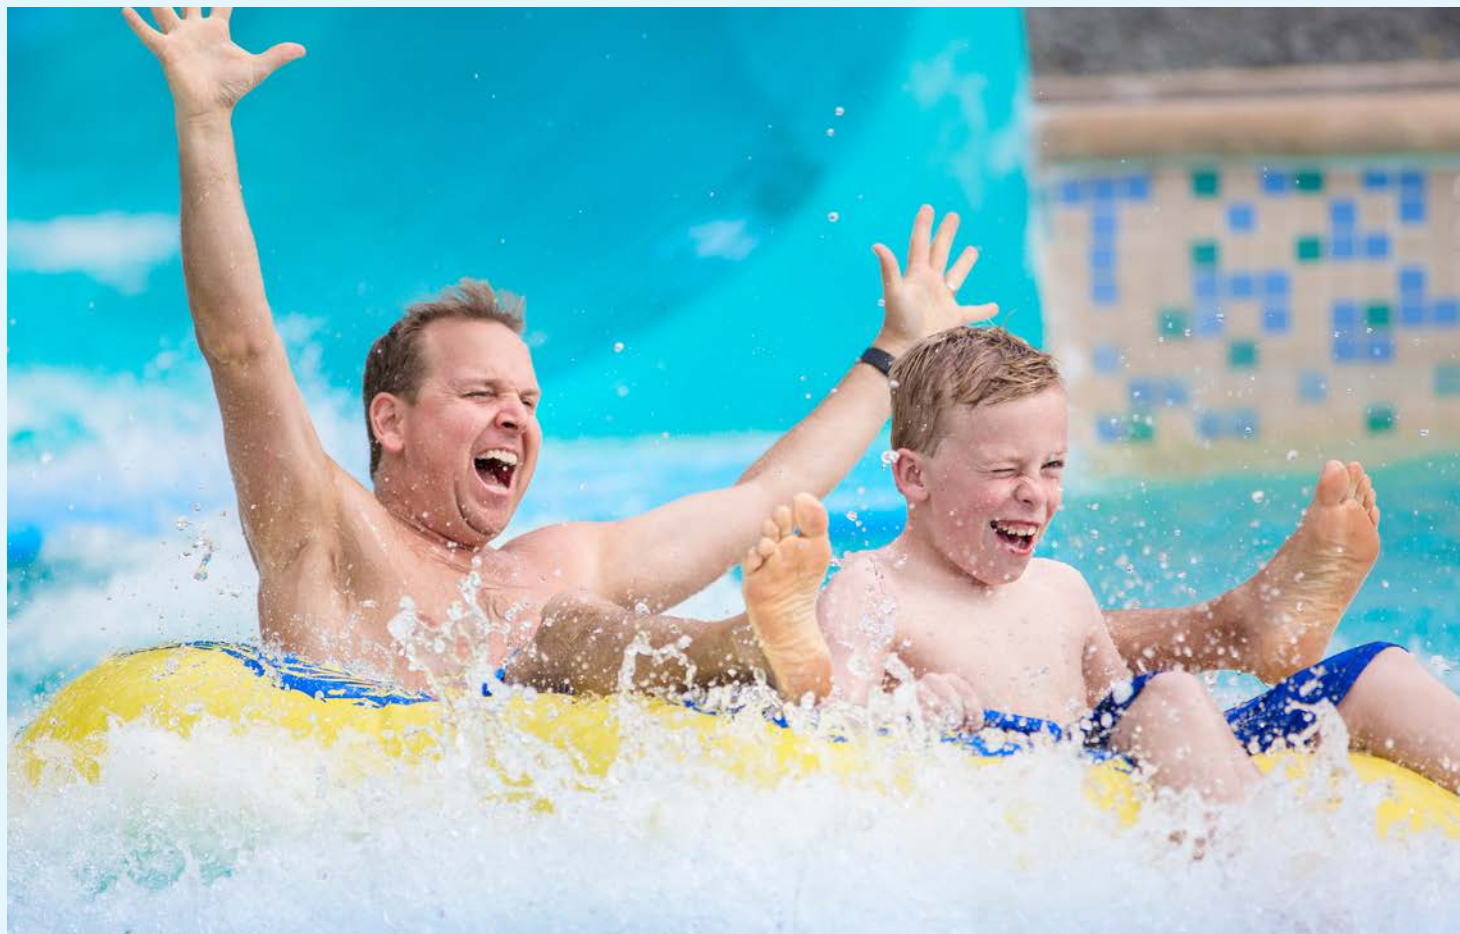

Grapevine | marriott.com

Paradise Springs Water Park offers an exclusive 10-acre aquatic playground available only to Gaylord Texan Resort guests. The complex features a 6,000-square-foot family lagoon, a giant water playhouse, and a 600-foot lazy river. Four winding waterslides complete the resort's premium water amenities.

Texas Pool on the Creek

Plano | texaspool.org

The Texas Pool offers visitors a unique swimming experience in a large saltwater pool shaped like the state of Texas, complete with diving boards, water slides, and themed areas including a North Texas island and South Texas wading section. This historically recognized landmark serves as both a beloved community gathering place and a distinctive attraction that draws tourists seeking a memorable aquatic adventure.

Hawaiian Falls

Mansfield | hfalls.com/mansfield.php

Hawaiian Falls Mansfield spans 14 acres in the Dallas/Fort Worth metro area, offering everything from the adrenaline-charged Torpedo body slide to gentle wave pools for young children. The park balances thrilling raft rides and tube slides with family-friendly areas like a lazy river. The Keiki Kove children's area features rope ladders and interactive water buckets.

Cannon Beach (Coming Soon)

McKinney | cannonbeachtx.com

Cannon Beach centers around a four-acre surf lagoon paired with a resort-style hotel featuring a rooftop pool and event spaces. It includes a sandy beach with dining options, water attractions like cliff diving and stationary surfing, plus integrated entertainment and business facilities.

NRH2O Family Water Park

North Richland Hills | nrh2o.com

NRH2O Family Water Park sits conveniently between Dallas and Fort Worth, offering a full day of attractions from wave pools to thrilling slides. The park provides free tubes, life jackets, and parking, making it budget-friendly for families. Special events throughout the season include dive-in movies and fireworks shows.

Hawaiian Falls

Roanoke | hfalls.com/roanoke.php

Hawaiian Falls Roanoke holds two world records with its Mega WaterWorld attraction (the largest aquatic play structure globally) and Beach Blasters (the first multi-tube racing slide). The park combines record-breaking features with family-friendly attractions like dump buckets and raft rides. Visitors can experience multiple world-first innovations in one location.

EAST TEXAS & THE COAST

Pirate's Bay

Baytown | baytownpiratesbay.com

Pirate's Bay Water Park in Baytown immerses visitors in an elaborate pirate world complete with ships, parrots, and rope ladders. The park's standout feature is a surfing machine that lets children practice wave riding in front of an audience. Beyond the unique surfing experience, families enjoy two slide towers, a climbing wall, and a pirate-themed splash area.

Hurricane Alley Waterpark

Corpus Christi | hurricanealleycc.com

Hurricane Alley Waterpark is Corpus Christi's premier aquatic destination, featuring heart-pounding multi-story waterslides, a relaxing lazy river, and family-friendly attractions for all ages. The park combines high-energy thrills with laid-back amenities like a wave pool, tiki bar, and private cabanas. Hurricane Alley delivers the complete waterpark experience with something exciting for every member of the family.

Schlitterbahn

Galveston | schlitterbahn.com

Schlitterbahn Galveston is a sprawling water park on Galveston Island that caters to thrill-seekers and families alike with its mix of adrenaline-pumping slides and gentler attractions spread across three connected sections. The park features everything from intense body slides and water coasters to kid-friendly play areas and relaxing pools. With picnic facilities and a mile of interconnected waterways, it's designed to provide a full day of aquatic fun for visitors of all ages.

Six Flags Hurricane Harbor Splashtown

Houston | sixflags.com/splashtown

Six Flags Hurricane Harbor Splashtown stands as Houston's largest waterpark, sprawling across 48 lush acres with innovative attractions like the six-story Wahoo Wave slide. This adrenaline-packed ride creates near-vertical drops and zero-gravity experiences before riders plunge through a massive waterfall. The expansive park includes two dedicated children's areas alongside its thrilling attractions.

Big Rivers Waterpark & Adventures

New Caney | bigriverswaterpark.com

Big Rivers Waterpark boasts Texas's largest interactive play structure with over 300 water-play elements, creating what they call "a water park within a water park." The seasonal park northeast of Houston offers multi-person raft adventures and competitive racing slides. Families can spend hours exploring the massive play structure alone.

Typhoon Texas

Katy | typhoontexas.com/houston

Typhoon Texas Katy ranks among the state's newest and largest waterparks, covering 25 acres with 30 waterslides, including a seven-story freefall drop. The park innovates with attractions like an interactive video game and a waterslide combination ride. An elaborate four-story children's play structure ensures entertainment for younger visitors.

Splash Kingdom Waterpark

Nacogdoches | splashkingdomwaterpark.com

Splash Kingdom operates a chain of Christian family waterparks across Texas, emphasizing safe and wholesome recreation in a faith-based environment. Their locations feature standard waterpark attractions, including wave pools, lazy rivers, various water slides, and dedicated children's play areas. The company focuses on providing family-friendly entertainment with food service and party facilities available at each park.

Splashway Water Park

Sheridan | splashwaywaterpark.com

Splashway Waterpark is a family-focused destination in Sheridan, Texas, that combines a waterpark with year-round camping facilities. Located between Houston, Austin, and San Antonio, it offers water attractions, various accommodation options, and additional activities.

Locally Grown ♦ Texas Strong

Independence
Title
IndependenceTitle.com